Dr. Nisrine Ghazal received third prize for her presentation at the first Clinical Research Open House held on May 22, 2014 at Issam Fares Hall.

Fourteen graduating residents presented their research projects at the First Clinical Research Open House, on May 22, 2014 at Issam Fares Hall. Dr. Nisrine Ghazal was awarded third prize for her project entitled "Effect of Vitamin D Supplementation on Musculoskeletal Parameters in Adolescents One Year Post-Completion of a Dose Ranging Randomized Trial", authors: Nisrine Ghazal, MD, Laila Al-Shaar, MS, MPH, Joyce Maalouf, MS, Mona Nabulsi, MD, MSc, Asma Arabi, MD, MSc, Mahmoud Choucair, MD, Hani Tamim, PhD, Ghada El-Hajj Fuleihan, MD, MPH. First prize went to Dr. Razmik Warakian for his project entitled “Burnout and Depression among Residents in Different Medical Specialties at AUB-MC” and the second prize to Dr. Eliane Younes for her project "Utility of Leg Ultrasound Prior to Application of Sequential Compression Device SCD in Critically Ill Adults".

Dr. Ghazal was also awarded the Department of Medicine Resident of the Year Award. Congratulations!