SHARP Summer 2016 graduates, Dr. Vanessa Al Kamari and Dr. Ahmad Mourad, presented their work at the IDWeek in San Diego, the largest international annual infectious diseases conference.

Dr. El Kamary gave an oral presentation and was awarded the “Young Investigator Award” for her work. Her presentation was very well received, with much interest in the implications of her results:

"Fatty Liver Disease in HIV: Predictors and Response to Statin Therapy"

Vanessa El Kamari, MD, Corrilynn O. Hileman, MD and Grace Mccomsey, MD, FIDSA

Dr. Mourad presented two posters there as well:

"Dosing Voriconazole in Obese Patients"

Ahmad Mourad, MD, Melissa Johnson, PharmD, MHS and John R Perfect, MD, FIDSA

"QTc Prolongation in Patients Receiving Triazoles and Amiodarone"

Katherine Cook, PharmD, Thitinan Sraubol, PharmD, Kristen Bova Campbell, PharmD, Ahmad Mourad, MD, Jonathan Stiber, MD, John R Perfect, MD, FIDSA and Melissa Johnson, PharmD, MHS