As part of the SHARP Longitudinal Seminar Series, President Fadlo Khuri gave a presentation titled “Lung Cancer in 2020-a moving target”. The multidisciplinary approach, recapitulating the exciting story of the future of lung cancer, taking the audience of scientists back and forth from bench to bedside and back to bench again, touching on public health, prevention, policy, and advocacy was most inspiring to all, and particularly to the younger audience of budding scientists.