SHARP students attended the 2 days-workshop with key faculty Holger Schünemann, MD, MSc, PhD. The workshop familiarized the participants with the process of developing guidelines in the clinical, public health and health services fields. It also provided them with the opportunity to discuss local adaption of international guidelines.